Korea's first hypermarket, EMART, has rapidly grown as a major shopping destination for daily consumer goods, beginning with its first store in Changdong. The number of EMART stores exceeded 100 when it acquired Wal-Mart Korea in 2006. Currently, we operate 157 domestic stores (including EMART Traders, as of 2017). Overseas, we operate 1 store in Vietnam, open 2 store in Mongolia through a franchise agreement and plan to grow our global operations with entering into overseas markets in U.S
