“探寻山西” 线上冬令营

2021 “Discover SHANXI” Online Winter Camp

Course Orientation

Chinatown (meaning literally the Street of Tang People in Chinese) is a part of a city where Chinese expatriates gather. The origin of its name can be traced back to the Tang Dynasty when China had a great influence over the world. Thereafter, foreigners started to call China or things related to China “Tang”, and the Chinese people “the Tang people”. The Tang was founded by Emperor Tang Gaozu Li Yuan, who initially assembled his troops in Jinyang (now Taiyuan City, Shanxi Province) in 617 A.D., and established the Tang Dynasty the following year. During the Tang Dynasty, great achievements were made in culture, science, technology, politics, economy and diplomacy etc. Being one of the most powerful countries back then, the Tang had its fame spread far and wide. Jinyang, the birthplace of the prosperous Tang Dynasty, is a famous northern metropolis in ancient China. Where Jinyang was located is now Taiyuan, the capital of Shanxi Province and a national historical and cultural city, also known as the “Dragon City” .

Shanxi University of Finance and Economics (SXUEF), a university with a long history and special features, was instituted just in Taiyuan in 1951. “Discover Shanxi” , a winter camp organized by SXUFE, will guide you to tour around this ancient yet lively city. This online course, through recorded videocasts and synchronous teaching over a period of three weeks, will explore with you this ancient and lively city to learn about its long history, profound culture as well as the brilliant stories of Shanxi Merchants. Through cloud tour, you can visit Shanxi Museum, the Jinci Tang Museum and Shanxi Merchants Museum. Listening to Guzheng, a Chinese folk musical instrument, and watching the Chinese tea art, martial arts, calligraphy, texture rubbings and Shanxi noodles culture, you will be able to appreciate the unique charm of Chinese culture, and learn to speak and write Chinese characters and communicate with simple Chinese language.

Welcome to join the winter camp “Discover Shanxi” . You will obtain a completion certificate at the end of your study.
